Because you care!

The Lord guides us to help the fatherless; that we labour with the lord to alleviate suffering. Why wouldn’t I give regularly to help others?

Mike Coffey, monthly donor

I’ve been a part of helping people who were born in places with no hope and no future – I’ve helped to show them that God loves them too and that has changed my life for the better too. That’s why I give to Crisis Aid.

Dane Welch, donor since 2001

While God does not need me to do what He is able to do, we are invited, through our connection to the life-saving mission of Crisis Aid, to impact the lives of lost and dying people whom God loves the very same way He loves us.

Corey M. Durbin, advocate and donor

Crisis Aid helped to give me purpose. They give me a feeling that I’m having an impact, that I am helping do good things in the world by giving to them.

Matt Lopas, new donor

Thank you for refusing to do nothing. Thank you for bringing hope and health and loving kindness to those who are desperately struggling to survive each day.

Because of you... children are alive and receiving life-saving food to eat.
They are getting critical medical care at your clinics and now have a fighting chance for a better future. Because of you... girls no longer sell their bodies to survive. Instead, they received vocational training and now lead productive new lives. Many have married. Friend, because of you... more desperate souls have experienced the power of God’s love as never before.

This year, we look back at 20 years of things you helped make possible. From America to Afghanistan, from Africa to Haiti, you have been with us, step by step, walking the path our Lord has set before us. This year, we wanted to remind you of how far we have come; and with your ongoing compassion, love, and support, how far we will go.

Many times we have often been told the help you provided was the answer to their prayers. Each embrace of thanksgiving we received belonged to you. You truly make a meaningful difference to so many people. We are so grateful to have this chance to celebrate you as a member of our family, the Crisis Aid Family!

God bless you, Pat and Sue Bradley

Your impact in 2000-2021:

This map shows some of the many places your hands have shown God’s loving light over the past 20 years. You’ve been there with us all along the way, travelling to places where people have no hope. Places where other organizations would not even attempt to go.

United States: 2015-Current You’ve provided essential household food and ministry to more than 700,000 children and families in need in St. Louis and surrounding areas. PLUS, you helped meet the vastly increased need for food during COVID-19. You’ve also rescued thousands of women and girls from the sex trade and are giving them a safe place (Refugee Home) to live until they can start a new life.

South Sudan: 2000-2009
This was the genesis of Crisis Aid!
You provided food to people in desperate need impacted by the horrors and atrocities of the Sudanese civil war. By the end it became about more than just providing food — it became about providing whatever the people needed most.

East Africa: 2005-Current
Your steadfast love has had such a dramatic impact in this area!
You’ve provided food and clean water to many starving, malnourished children. You’ve given medical treatment to more than 750,000 children. You provided a home for orphans, and rescued thousands of women and girls from a life of trafficking and sexual exploitation. You helped build Mercy Chapel a brothel converted to a chapel and vocational school. PLUS: You’re helping build a Girls Village and a Pediatric Hospital!

Cambodia: 2007-2009
You helped rescue 27 girls, aged 4-22, from a life of child prostitution. With your loving kindness we were able to reunite many of the girls with family or help them be adopted by good Christian families.

Indonesia: 2004-2006
You provided food and water for more than 13,000 people displaced by the devastating tsunami, as well as building homes for refugees.

Pakistan: 2008-2009
You provided food and shelter to thousands of refugees displaced by the earthquake.

North Korea: 2008-2009
You helped build an orphanage and provided food for 2,000 orphaned children for a month.

Afghanistan: 2001-2018
You provided food, clothing and warm bedding to children, women and all those impacted by the ongoing war. You helped train widows to sew and distribute blankets. You rehabilitated three schools and helped purify 1,400 water wells.
